

JAPANESE

Want Just One More Land Battle Before Peace

TAKAHIRA REPORTS.

Japanese Will Decline To Meet in Paris.

Because It Is Capital of Russia's Ally—Mikado Will Probably Suggest Some Point Near Scene of War—Milwaukee Wants the Peace-Meeting—
Russia's Plenipotentiary.

Tokyo, June 14.—The government maintains absolute silence on the subject of the result of the peace negotiations. The newspapers have all taken a stand against an early armistice saying that such action to suspend hostilities would deprive Field Marshal Oyama of the victory which is now within his grasp and that the next offensive movement on the part of the Japanese will carry them within Russian territory.
The papers as well as the people, openly question Russia's good faith at present, and fear her ultimate intentions are far from what she would make them appear. The public would only welcome peace on the condition that Japan is able to receive everything she may demand. A compromise is bound to prove very unpopular.

JAPANESE WANT JUST ONE MORE LAND BATTLE.

London, June 14.—The news today substantiates the information sent in these dispatches Saturday to the effect that at heart the Japanese want peace postponed until after another land battle has been fought. There seems to be no reason to doubt from the advices received this morning that Field Marshal Oyama is now engaged in the preliminary movements for a general offensive demonstration. The battle is expected to begin soon unless there is an immediate backdown by the Russians. Oyama has his forces arranged in the shape of a half-moon extending along the entire Russian front. It is believed he is now in a position to administer as decisive a blow on the land as did Admiral Togo on the sea.

RUSSIA'S PLENIPOTENTIARY.

Tokyo, June 14.—A report from Minister Takahira at Washington telling of interviews with the President and giving details of the progress of the peace negotiations was received today.
The proposal of Russia that peace plenipotentiaries shall meet in Paris, and the announcement that M. Neldoff, Russia's ambassador to France, has been selected as chief plenipotentiary, is contained in the report. Japan will decline to agree to meet in Paris because it is the capital of Russia's ally. Japan will probably propose some point near the scene of war as a meeting place. Her plenipotentiary has not yet been named.

MILWAUKEE WANTS IT.

Milwaukee, June 14.—Milwaukee wants the peace conference. Telegrams have been sent to Count Cassini and Minister Takahira calling attention to the fact that Milwaukee as a summer resort is widely and favorably known. Another telegram was sent to President Roosevelt asking his good offices to bring the congress here. The telegrams were signed by Mayor Ross and the officers of the Citizens' Business League.

PEACE NOT WANTED.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—The reactionary press continues to put all obstacles in the way of peace. Roosevelt is attacked for interference.

LINEVITCH SURROUNDED?

St. Petersburg, June 14.—The Gazette today publishes a sensational interview with the secretary of the Chinese legation to the effect that Russia must conclude immediate peace as General Linevitch's army is entirely surrounded.

Kink Leopold will leave a fortune of $10,000,000, most of which will go to the Belgian people for works of public utility. He regards his daughters as Lear did Regan and Gertrude. The daughters will get about $40,000 each.

FLAG DAY IS OBSERVED TODAY OVER AMERICA

First Flag Made 128 Years Ago Carried by John Paul Jones.

Washington, June 14.—Flag day celebrated in commemoration of the adoption of the red, white and blue as the national emblem, was formally observed all over the land today. Inaugurated by the Woman's Relief corps of the department of the Potomac, ten years ago, the idea has been adopted in nearly every state and territory and Americans have carried the custom to the islands beyond the sea.
Millions of flags waved and were worn as decorations in memory of the action of the Continental congress, June 14, 1777, when a resolution was adopted "that the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, while in a blue field representing a new constellation."

The flag is 128 years old and though it has been slightly altered, the alteration represents only the growth of the institution for which it stands.
The first flag was made by patriotic women in Philadelphia. It was flown by John Paul Jones, whose body is about to be removed to the United States for interment on American soil.

EPWORTH LEAGUE IS TO MEET IN DENVER

Denver, Colo., June 14.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the seventh international convention of the Epworth League of the Methodist church to be held here July 5 to 9. It is expected that about 25,000 delegates and members will be in attendance.
The purpose of the convention is to strengthen the bands of the entire membership of the league and of Methodism and to create a greater zeal and enthusiasm.

Governor McDonald has written his welcome and is expected to honor the convention with his presence. Governors Hoch of Kansas and Hanley of Indiana; Guy Mark Pearce of England, L. F. Hadly, New York mission worker; Bishops Galloway and Hendricks of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and Berry, Cranston, Spellmy-er and Joyce of the M. E. church with several score of other prominent workers from this country and abroad will be present and deliver addresses.

A committee of 800 will welcome the strangers and provide for their comfort. The headquarters of the convention will be in the buildings of the high school. Three churches will be used to hold simultaneous services.
Wednesday night, July 5, the Hallelujah chorus will be rendered by a choir of 500 voices.

WITTE UNWILLING TO ACT FOR RUSSIA

Prevailing Conditions Don't Suit—He Thinks Russia Could Win Except for Internal Trouble.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—In an interview today M. Witte, president of the council of ministers, who is suggested as one of the Russian plenipotentiaries to meet Japan's peace commissioners, says he would be unwilling to accept any official mission as it is impossible for him to work under prevailing conditions and he does not look for any change in the Russian policy. Witte expressed the opinion that Japan will demand that the peace negotiations take place in Tokyo and will require a guarantee ensuring peace for fifty years. Russia he declared, could prolong the war five years and win ultimately except for her internal troubles.

EMPLOYERS BOUGHT PEACE

Former Secretary Says He Paid Sums of Money to Labor Leaders.

SETTLED NUMEROUS STRIKES

Adjustment of Four Hundred Controversies the Past Two Years Brought About by the Use of Cash—Riot in Which One of the Crowd Is Shot by a Negro Policeman.

Chicago, June 14.—The teamsters' strike proper has almost been lost sight of, the attention of both sides to the controversy being occupied more with the charges of bribery in connection with labor unions in Chicago than with the real issue. Within the next 24 hours, it is said, a history of the secret transactions of labor unions in Chicago for the past four years will be made public, and the information will implicate many labor leaders who, it is asserted, have accepted bribes to call off strikes. The man who is expected to give this information is John C. Driscoll, former secretary of the coal team owners' association, who has been the intermediary between the employers and the teamsters' unions in this city for the past four years.

Driscoll says he will appear before the grand jury with documentary evidence showing that several labor leaders have been receiving large sums of money through Driscoll, which, it is declared by the latter, the employers were forced to pay to prevent their employees being called out on strike. To substantiate his statement Driscoll displayed a bank check book, the stubs on which he said correspond to the amounts of money paid to these labor leaders. This bank book will be offered in his testimony before the grand jury.

The method used by Driscoll, according to his own statement, was this: An employer or an organization of employers who was affected by a strike, or who was likely to be, would call and ask him to use his influence to bring about an adjustment of the difficulty.

The fees, according to Driscoll, paid the union men ranged from $100 to thousands of dollars, the aggregate being estimated by him at $80,000. Driscoll declares that he never received a dollar of this money for his efforts in averting trouble, except from the organizations of which he was acting as secretary.

In a riot Frank Hartman was shot in the stomach and fatally wounded by Policeman "Bunk" Jones, a negro Jones was guarding a wagon and the wagon was stopped by a crowd of strike sympathizers. Singling out Hartman as the leader of the mob, Jones jumped from the wagon and attempted to arrest him. Hartman resisted and was apparently getting the better of Jones when the policeman drew a revolver and fired.

WARSHIPS SUNK

In Attack on Forts Which Defend the National Capital—Mimic War
Game Is Played.

Fort Hunt, Va., June 14.—The first gun in defense of Washington was fired by one of the 8-inch batteries of Fort Hunt. The target was one of the units of Admiral Dickens' squadron, which appeared to be of the cruiser type. She had just rounded Marshall's Point, about three miles below the fort, proceeding slowly up the river. That she was an "enemy" was indicated by a signal from one of the fort's 60-inch searchlights. After the initial fire the shooting became general, and six minutes was taken up by Fort Washington's 12-inch batteries. When the required number of shots from the fort had been fired to constructively put the ship out of action, the firing ceased.

For the third time in the last 24 hours the battleship Texas flagship; the training ship Hartford and U.S. gunboat Hornet were constructively sunk off Fort Monroe. Heavy firing was maintained by both fleet and fort for almost half an hour. So far as can be learned now only one mine was exploded during the last encounter, and that may have been struck by a merchant ship.

Crawford Defense Concludes.

Washington, June 14.—The defense in the trial of William G. Crawford, charged with conspiracy with August W. Machen and George E. Lorenz to defraud the government under a contract to furnish letter carriers' satchels to the postoffice department, rested its case unexpectedly. The government's counsel was taken by surprise and was not ready to proceed with the examination of witnesses in the case. District Attorney Beach stated that probably one witness is all that will be used.

DISTILLERY BURNS.

Owensboro, Ky., June 14.—The Rock Spring distillery burned last night. The loss is placed at $100,000.

Boycotting of goods from the United States by Chinese guilds is daily assuming more serious proportions.

ROMANTIC STORY

In Fight for Estate of Mrs. R. M. Hoyt.

TRIAL ON AT TIFFIN

Judge Bunn In Possession of Woman's Property.

And He Is Defending His Title
To Wealth of the Married Woman He Hoped To Wed—Jury Promptly Secured and Great
Legal Battle Is Now On—Case
Will Likely Last Three Weeks.

Tiffin, O., June 14.—Reuben M. Hoyt, the New York millionaire, will not appear in the suit to contest the will of his wife. In a statement to the jury today Hoyt's attorney said his client would not enter the contest and that he is satisfied that Judge Bunn shall retain the property. It is understood that Bunn and Hoyt have reached an agreement on the money consideration. This leaves the sister and two half-brothers the sole contestants. The defense in the opening statements said it would show that Mrs. Hoyt was not insane, but afflicted with a weakness of the nerves. The defense announced it would show that Bunn and Mrs. Hoyt were only awaiting a successful termination of the divorce pending in New York to be married. Miss Jennie Williams, witness for the plaintiff, has disappeared.

Tiffin, O., June 14.—The celebrated suit to decide who shall enjoy the large fortune left by Mrs. Reuben M. Hoyt, the eccentric and brilliant New York woman who created such a furor in this city four years ago, was commenced in the Common Pleas court yesterday, with Judge E. M. Fries, of Bowling Green, on the bench, and is expected to last three weeks, as telegraphed the Advocate yesterday, a jury was promptly secured and the case was adjourned till today. Besides thousands of pages of depositions, taken in New York, Chicago, Columbia, South America, and other places remote from Tiffin, over 100 witnesses have been subpoenaed. That the case will be bitterly fought is evidenced by the fact that more than $1,000 has been expended in securing the deposition of one witness alone, that of Miss Jennie Williams, the trained nurse. Arrayed upon the two sides are no less than 25 attorneys, constituting not only the flower of the Seneca County Bar and those adjacent, but also of the state. Prominent upon the side of Mrs. Eva Hill, sister of Mrs. Hoyt, and the other heirs who are contesting the will, is found the name of Hon. E. G. Johnson of Elyria, one of the most skillful will lawyers in Northern Ohio. Arrayed upon the side of Judge Bunn, the legatee, is Hon. Charles W. Baker of Cincinnati, and six others of almost equal prominence.

The suit involves some novel legal features, and has for its background one of the most remarkable clusters of circumstances ever found outside of fiction. Mrs. Hoyt, the daughter of obscure parents, was born near Tiffin. Her maiden name being Charlotte Guss. She was a remarkably pretty girl, and, though illiterate, was bright. Longing for greater opportunities, and with an ambition to make of herself something more than a mere household drudge, she went to Chicago while yet in her teens and became a servant in a wealthy Jewish family. The son of the house became infatuated with her, and, despite all objection, they were married. He was disinherited, and the two lived unhappily together until they were divorced. She then went to New York, where she met Hoyt, a millionaire several times over. They were married.

All went well for a time, but trouble arose between the two—trouble said to have been engendered by the attentions of a wealthy contractor, or, as others claim, because of the dissatisfactions of the husband. At any rate they separated, Hoyt settling upon his wife a fortune, consisting of valuable New York real estate, railroad stocks and bonds, money and other valuable securities. This was in 1899, and soon afterward Mrs. Hoyt, no longer the simple country girl, but stately, matured and beautiful, and, above all, (Continued on Page 2.)

BACKSET FOR THE MAYOR

Philadelphia Councilmen Decide to Test Legality of "Repealers."

LATTER ANNUL FRANCHISES

Cries of Thieves and Crooks From the Lobby Greet the Announcement of the Vote—No Compensation For Street Railway Franchises—Alderman Placed Under Arrest.

Philadelphia, June 14.—The committee on street railways of city council, under the protection of a squad of police and amid cries of "thieves" and "crooks," referred to the city solicitor for his opinion as to their legality four bills repealing ordinances granting streetcar companies the right to use 110 miles of street to lay tracks, without the city receiving any compensation for the franchises. The meeting was in all respects as sensational and as stormy as that held by the committee on finance some weeks ago, when the gas lease was under consideration. The "repealers" were introduced at the instance of Mayor Weaver, and the action of the committee is the first setback the mayor has received since the inauguration of the reform movement, which began with the fight on the gas lease.

The fight over the streetcar franchises promises to be a warm one before it is finally ended. It is a contest between the mayor and citizens living in the territory through which the proposed new lines are to run on the one hand, and the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, backed by the Republican organization, on the other. The members of the committee who spoke against the repealers were called "thieves" and "crooks," and so disorderly did the proceedings become that a squad of police were hurriedly summoned from the central station, on the sixth floor of City hall, to the committee room on the fourth floor. Thereafter better order was maintained.

Another sensation in the political situation was the arrest of Frank H. Caven, select councilman from the Thirty-fourth ward, on the charge of violating his councilmanic oath by being interested in the city contracts. He was held in $10,000 bail for a further hearing. He denies the charge.

CITY OWNERSHIP OF ALL SUBWAYS

New York, June 14.—Absolute municipal ownership of all subways, provided most favorable terms can not be obtained from private bidders, together with municipal ownership of lighting facilities, are advocated in a resolution adopted by the city committee of the Citizens' union. The resolution will be handed to the city convention of the party with recommendation that it be incorporated in the platform this fall.

KING OSCAR'S REPLY

Stockholm, June 14.—King Oscar, in a long and vigorously worded letter to the president of the Norwegian storting, M. Berner, declares that the accession duty of Norway's king makes it the king's duty not to pass over in silence the pronouncement of the Norwegian council of state on the occasion of his majesty's veto of the consular bill. The king maintains that he did not overstep his prerogatives under the constitution, and says that consideration for the union imposes on the king the duty of exercising his legislative executive rights. After lengthy repudiating the declaration of the council of state that his veto was unconstitutional because no member of the council regarded himself as being in a position to counter-sign it, King Oscar concludes: "It remains for Sweden and for me as king of the union to decide whether the attack by Norway on the existing union shall lead to the legal dissolution of that union. Let the present generation and posterity judge between me and the Norwegian people."

LITTLE CHILD IS VICTIM OF BRUTAL AND FATAL ASSAULT

Suspected Girl Was Struck by Negro Whom She Recognized.

Shelby, Ind., June 14.—May Hill, aged 5, daughter of Charles Hill, a cabinet maker, was murderously assaulted at 9 o'clock this morning, while her mother was temporarily out of the house. Mrs. Hill says that she was away but five minutes and when she returned she found her daughter lying in a pool of blood under the floor. The child was unconscious and there was a wound on her temple made by some blunt instrument. Physicians say that the child cannot recover.

It is suspected that the little girl was struck down by a negro burglar whom the child recognized. There are indications that the house was ransacked.

Two negroes were arrested this morning, under suspicion of connection with the crime.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Baltimore, June 14.—Cardinal Gibbons delivered an address at the commencement exercises at Mount St. Agnes college, one of the most exclusive female seminaries in this section, during which he made an attack on woman suffrage. Among other things he said: "Woman today is the peer of her husband, not the slave of his caprice and passion. She is as she ought to be, queen of the domestic household. But because you are equal in council of state, that his veto was have the same functions to perform. Some women are not satisfied with their own power; they want to invade man's privileges and they want to vote. I trust they will never get the authority to do that, for when woman mingles with political life she loses her freshness. You can not vote, but you can make men vote to please you, and you can not preach. Some of these new women get angry with St. Paul and call him an old fogy and an old bachelor, but he was right. You can preach in your own home, for the best preacher is the good, pious, Christian mother."

The first intimation of the drowning was when a boy found a floating fishing rod and pulling it in drew to the surface Chisholm's body.

Fourth Trial of a Fifty Thousand Dollar False Arrest Suit Suddenly Stopped—A Remarkable Case of Alleged Dual Identitity Comes to Light in New York.

New York, June 14.—A remarkable case of alleged dual identity came to light with the arrest and indictment by the grand jury of Thomas F. Wickes, a prominent lawyer, on a charge of blackmail. According to District Attorney Jerome, Wickes has been living a Jekyll and Hyde life for more than three years. His relatives claim that he had shown evidence of being mentally unbalanced and that they thought of sending him to a retreat, but he informed them that he would resist any such attempt.

When he was arraigned Wickes was released on $1,000 bail, pleading on the indictment being deferred until next Monday on request of the district attorney. The story, which became public with the report of the indictment, has many remarkable features.

The whole case is based upon a complaint made by Edward Weston, head of the Weston Electrical Instrument company, of Newark, N. J., who alleges that Wickes, under a fictitious name, wrote him annoying letters criticizing acts of an attorney employed by Mr. Weston in a case in which Wickes also was interested, and demanding money.

Mr. Weston was the defendant in a suit for $50,000 damages for false arrest brought against him by Dr. Ash-bell T. Grinnell, formerly dean of the medical school of the University of Vermont. Wickes appeared as one of Dr. Grinnell's counsel, while former District Attorney Osborne, was counsel for Mr. Weston. The case had gone to trial four times, the trial being abruptly ended Monday by the withdrawal of Atty. Osborne who gave as his reason for doing so, "the conduct of Mr. Wickes, counsel for the complainant." It developed that Wickes is charged with having written letters to Mr. Weston, pointing out alleged errors in papers filed by his counsel in the case, declaring that his act in signing these papers constituted perjury and made him liable to punishment, and demanded immediate payment of money to guarantee him against prosecution and imprisonment. The letters were signed "Lewis Jarvis."

Mr. Weston attempted to locate Jarvis, advertisements were inserted for several days in some of the local papers inquiring concerning "Lewis Jarvis," but brought no response. Finally the matter was placed in the hands of the district attorney. His investigation developed the fact, it was said in court that more than three years ago Wickes had an elaborate letter-head bearing the name "Lewis Jarvis" engraved by a fashionable stationer. It is also alleged that Wickes called at the postoffice and received mail from the box indicated in the Jarvis letter which was received by Mr. Weston. When called before the grand jury he was unable satisfactorily to explain the matter and his indictment and arrest quickly followed.

Wickes is a well known civil lawyer and has a handsome residence in West Seventieth street. He is about 50 years old. He was graduated at Yale in 1874 and from the Columbia law school in 1876. He is a member of the University, Lawyers' and New York Athletic clubs, the Mendelssohn dice club, Psi Upsilon club, and Association of the Bar of the City of New York, and was assistant corporation counsel of this city when United States Judge Lacombe was corporation counsel.

SKUNK FARM

Is Better Than Gold Mine and Owner Reaps a Fortune, Says Canadian Writer for the Herald.

E. C. Tripp of Atikaman, Manitoba, claims that he is the only man on the American continent who is making money by running a fox farm, which he has established on Clearwater Lake, 18 miles north of Banning, on the Canadian Northern railway, says the Winnipeg, Canada, correspondent of the New York Herald.

It is three years since he started, with a pair of silver gray foxes. Now he has 13 silver gray and four black foxes. His farm comprises 16 acres, which he is fencing with wire netting 10 feet high, sunk to bed rock and water level. Inside this wire inclosure are the breeding pens, where the females are kept separate from one another during breeding time. This is imperative, as the females will kill each other and also the young kittens if they are not watched. Tripp is now arranging to spend $10,000 on his farm and will add to the number of foxes on hand. He assumes that his enterprise will shortly be worth more than a gold mine, on account of the fact that black and silver gray fox skins are getting scarcer each year and he will reap the benefit of a rising market.

About the same time that Mr. Tripp started his fox farm, Louis Selberry discovered that there was money in raising skunks and started a farm on Half Moon Island, in the Lake of the Woods, not very far from Banning. He secured six of these little animals and as they are very prolific he had 48 in the next year.

Last year he killed 400 of the skunks and realized $4 apiece on the skins, and this winter he expects to be able to kill nearly 1000. Occasionally he has found one entirely black, which he has kept separate and consequently now has quite a number of the little black animals. He asserts that his skunk farm is worth more than Mr. Tripp's fox farm.

The farmer who has a family of farm loving sons and an electric motor within reach of the feed line of an electric railway has the greatest combination that has ever been made use of on a farm. When the farmer is not the fortunate father of sons the motor goes a long way toward making up the deficiency.

Fifteen farmers and dairymen living along the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago third rail system have made a practical test to the adaptability of electric power on the farm and its cost in machinery and electric current. A year ago three farmers had installed the service. The increase is owing to the success that has been demonstrated since the first man set his motor going. Nearly all of these farmers are dairymen, keeping as high as 65 head of cows, the product of which is all hauled to the condensing plants. The use of electric power was primarily to cut the feed for the dairy animals, but it is now utilized for many other purposes.

In the farmyards have been built motor houses six feet wide and long and eight feet high. These are made of galvanized iron, and in most cases located about 20 feet away from the barn. The belt is connected with a shaft, which in some instances runs the entire length of the barn, operating a variety of machinery.

Theodore Schrammer, who owns a 100-acre farm, thrashed a big corn crop with electric power. The thrasher was set outside the barn, where it was surrounded by stacks of corn fodder hauled from the fields. The chopped leaves, stalks and husks were blown into the barn and the husked ears loaded into a wagon, all by electric power.

W. C. Kenyon, the first man to make the experiment, has a corn husker and a corn thrasher, a feedmill, circular sawmill and a big grindstone all on the same floor. By the same power the shelled corn is elevated to the floor above.

Mr. Kenyon stables 65 head of cows, and his motor is sufficient in power to cut all the feed required for the entire herd besides cutting his firewood. He grinds 50 bushel baskets of corn in an hour, the grinder grinding up corn and cob into a meal that makes a desirable food for dairy cows. He cuts up three loads of wood in an hour.

J. M. Fletcher carries his shelled corn from the big husker to a cornmill and it is reduced to meal at the same time the fodder is being threshed. He finds he is able to thresh big wagon loads in an hour and a half, and in that time he has ground up 55 sacks of meal.

Up to this time all of the farmers being largely engaged in the dairy farming, are doing about the same thing with their motors, namely, the reducing of unhusked corn fodder to cow feed. All of them will add machinery as they want it. All the motors, save one, are of 15 horsepower and cost from $500 to $600. The motor houses cost from $25 to $35 and the shafting from $75 to $100.

The company provides each motor with a meter, and the charges for current used has been fixed at 4 cents per 100 kilowatts, so the patron pays for what he uses. At this rate one of the farmers got monthly bills as follows: $5.21, $6.40, $6.40, $5.24 and $4.89. His total cost for power for five months in which he had threshed or husked his corn, ground his meal, cut up his firewood and ground his meal was $28.08.

BORROWED QUARTER

Was Run Up To $100,000 by Wonderful Streak of Luck, According to This Story.

"The world is full of tough-luck gamblers and also of the other kind," said the old sport to a select coterie of friends recently, remarks the Louisville Herald. "I have heard of men winning thousands on their last dollar and again of men with thousands getting down to their last bean. Perhaps the best instance of good luck that I can remember is that of George Groves who not so very long ago controlled the gambling industry in Saginaw, Mich."

Groves got his first start when the northern districts of Michigan were a gambler's paradise. He was a poor grafter, always broke and living in divers manners. He absolutely refused to work, but managed to get a meal somewhere.

"It was up in the Soo that his luck started. He floated into 'Dutch' Fox's place one night absolutely broke. He looked around and borrowed a quarter from a friend.

"The quarter was dumped on the red and the red won. He switched, put the half dollar on the black, and again won. Then he put a dollar away for breakfast and a night's lodging, and the other dollar went on No. 17.

"Again he won. With the $36 which the man behind the wheel passed him he went over to the faro bank. He bought three ten-dollar stacks and began playing with rare good judgment. It might have been luck, but it looked like skill and a thorough knowledge of the game. Time and again he won. It seemed as though he could not be beaten with anything short of a club.

"When the night was over Groves cashed in $1300 and prepared to shake the dust of the Soo from his feet forever. His next stop was at Calumet, where he continued his winning streak. He left Calumet with nearly $5000, and was looking like a prince of gamblers.

From Calumet he struck into Saginaw. Saginaw in those days was the best little town out of doors. The men who operated saloons threw the key to the front into the river when they opened up for business on their first appearance. The doors were never afterward locked. The rattle of chips was as sweet music to the ears of the people. Going along the streets the whirr of the little ball around the roulette disk could be heard at any time, Sunday or Monday. Everything was wide open and the police were harmless. In fact, Saginaw today is the best gambling town in the country, bar none. But in those days it had the world beaten.

"Groves did not try to buck the Saginaw game. It was too hard a proposition. He bought an interest in a house and went behind the table himself. He was a fend for poker, and would spend hour after hour bent over the green cloth.

"Luck stayed with him. Soon he owned the house outright, and some of the speediest sharks in the country were felled when they tackled the Groves sure thing. He felled friends and foes alike, and nobody was barred. The roof was off at all times and the deep blue sky was the limit.

"Only one man was known to have bettered Groves in any sort of a deal. A pugilistic manager went up against the taro game and was almost $500 to the bad when he discovered that he was working against a brace box. He became wrathful, but did not squeal. Rather than that he laid his plans to get Groves on any old line.

"The manager had some money in a Washington bank. He cashed a couple of drafts for small amounts in Groves' place, then raised the amounts until his credit was up to a high ebb. When the time came for his getaway he cashed a draft for $500, $600 of which was in payment of a gambling debt.

Groves was absolutely powerless. He did not dare to take the matter to the courts, for the manager would bring up the open gambling and then the police would be compelled to shut the Groves end of the suit into oblivion. Groves worried over the loss—not of the money, but his own self-conceit.

"A little over a year ago Groves died in Texas, to which state he had been ordered by his physician to cure the gambler's consumption. When he died he left property valued at almost $100,000, and the base of the whole could be traced to the one lone quarter he borrowed in the Soo 10 years ago.

"But, on the other hand, look at Groves' one-time partner, Freddie Smith. Smith started with a half million and wanted to be a sport. He backed everything that came along and today he is operating a little saloon in Saginaw which he purchased with the last $5000 he had to his name.

"There is always two sides to the gambling question, and the one side, that of the loser, explains why some of the big professionals are wearing diamonds and living on easy street."

There are specialists of various sorts among the New York street merchants, men who sell collar buttons, men who sell shoe laces, and so on, but as odd a specialist as any is the man who sells small boys "knee pants." He displays his wares in a basket on the edge of a downtown thoroughfare that leads to a big market, and relies for his trade on mothers passing that way to do the family marketing.

ROMANTIC STORY.

highly educated and cultured as the result of her contact with the world, turned her back upon New York and sought out her childhood home. Here her unusual beauty and great wealth at once attracted the notice of her former friends and associates, but it was to her extravagant tastes and many eccentricities that must be attributed the notoriety which she rapidly gained. She at once purchased the most beautiful suburban villa in Tiffin at a cost of several thousand dollars. After expending many more thousands of dollars in improvements and furnishings of almost Oriental magnificence, she sent for her former friends and relatives and set up an establishment the equal of which the wondering people hereabouts had never before seen.

She made several ineffectual attempts to enter society, but society held aloof. Discouraged at the coldness of those whom she thought to draw to her by her display of wealth she commenced to drink. Then commenced a series of bacchanalian revelries, debauches and eccentric escapades which were the talk of the entire community. Some time prior to this Judge J. F. Bunn, a prominent attorney of Tiffin and former Probate Judge of the county, commenced to transact her legal business. From the first they became almost inseparable companions, though it is said that he figured in the many escapades more as a guardian to see that no harm came to her. Finally even he was unable to restrain her, and when the woman became a confirmed drunkard until she finally died in 1902 of acute alcoholism.

After her death the will was filed here, and was most extraordinary in its nature. It bequeathed the great bulk of her fortune to her attorney, Judge Bunn, making provision for the care of her aged father, and setting aside a sum to be paid to a New York society for the prevention of cruelty to animals for the keeping of her horses, dogs, cats, birds, &c., of which she had a great number. A priest in New York was named in the will as trustee of the fund, but he refused to serve.

After the will was probated it was learned that the woman had made and afterward destroyed within the last four months of her life no less than four other wills, each as remarkable as the above, and each one disposing of her property in a different manner, though all made ample provision for Judge Bunn.

It is on the theory that the testatrix was mentally unsound and was unduly influenced that the contestants rely to break the will.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and sealding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a remedy you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NEWARK WOMAN IDENTIFIES HIM

SUICIDE WAS ENGAGED TO WED MISS MARY RYAN OF MARTIN'S FERRY.

Mrs. Stella Porter of 4 John Street, North Newark, Recognizes Remains of Mr. Kelley.

Chief Sheridan and Coroner Legge are now satisfied that they have established the identity of Martin Kelley, the man who committed suicide while confined in the county jail awaiting a hearing on a lunacy charge.

Mrs. Stella Porter of 385 John street, called at the Chief's office on Wednesday morning and stated that the name of the dead man was familiar and that a man of that name boarded with Mrs. Porter's aunt at Martin's Ferry.

In company with the officer she called at the morgue of Bowers & Criss Brothers where the body is awaiting burial and recognized the features of the dead man as being those of the former Martin's Ferry resident. Mrs. Porter also stated that Kelley was engaged to a young woman named Mary Ryan living in his home town.

Coroner Legge at once forwarded a telegram to Miss Ryan and to the Chief of Police of Martin's Ferry asking what disposition to make of the remains. Up until a late hour Wednesday afternoon, no reply had been received by the officials.

Women were afraid to venture out and small children were kept indoors. At 2 o'clock, Officer Zenghel, with William Berns, boarded one of James Mills' fast automobiles and went out to investigate the matter.

One Result of Imperialism.

Germany and France have determined to strengthen their possessions in the Asiatic Pacific by the erection of tremendous and costly fortifications and an increase of their naval equipment. Fear of Japan is the motive. The rising power of the orient looms formidable, vast, on the horizon. "The Yellow Peril" is accentuated by the splendid succession of victories Japan has won over Russia on land and sea.

It is a notable fact in connection with what has been stated that the United States has interests in the Pacific far transcending those of either Germany or France. A learned Japanese professor has declared that the United States and not Russia is the real enemy of Japan. He says that upon the completion of the Panama canal a gigantic struggle between the United States and Japan for control of the Pacific is inevitable. Some time ago elaborate plans for the fortification by this country of some of her insular possessions in and near the Philippines were prepared by the General Board of the Navy, of which Admiral Dewey is president. Congress has, as yet, taken no action on the matter, but it is not unreasonable to expect that under the stimulus of aggression and the policy of the "Big Stick" something large will be doing at the next session.

The Philippines, so far from being an element of strength to the United States will become a burden for whose defense we shall have to be constantly prepared. Vast armaments will be required not only to keep in subjection the treacherous and hostile natives within but to ward off attacks from without. The Philippines are within easy access of Japan and the growing power of the Mikado's empire is a menace that will require constant vigilance. The mess that imperialism and greedy commercial exploitation have got us into grows in its labyrinthine complications. The glory of conquest has faded and the burden is increasing. Groans displace the shout of victory over Tagal tatterdemajons and as the task draws upon the practical American mind the question naturally arises. "Has it all been worth while?" Problems more perplexing than insurrection of a few native tribes and involving vastly greater expenditure confront the United States in the Orient.

Is Your Boy a Drunkard?

Help Him By Orrine to Overcome His Craving—Can Be Given Secretly.

If your boy or husband has fallen a victim to the drink habit, endangering his future happiness and prosperity, do not delay a moment in helping him to overcome his craving for drink. Will-power alone cannot cure the liquor habit, for drunkenness is a disease and the desire for liquor must be satisfied.

Orrine, the wonderful specific for the cure for the whiskey and beer habit, removes all craving for drink with a few days' use and effects a permanent and lasting cure. It comes in two forms. No. 1 is perfectly colorless, tasteless and odorless, and can be given in tea, coffee or food without the patient's knowledge. But we recommend No. 2, in pill form, to be used by those who desire to free themselves from the terrible mastery of drink. The cost of either form is $1 a box. Orrine, the only guaranteed cure for the drink habit is sold and recommended by F. D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, Ohio.

NEW RECORD BY LAKE SHORE ROAD

AVERAGE SPEED OF OVED 70 MILES AN HOUR, CHICAGO TO BUFFALO.

Further Details of Southern Wreck in Which Over 30 Were Injured. Engine Turned Over.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 14.—The Lake Shore railroad established a new record between Chicago and Buffalo. The distance, 326 miles, over the air-line division, was covered in 453 minutes, thus beating the world's record of 470 minutes made last Monday. The train was made up of four Pullmans and was drawn by one of the usual large prairie type locomotives. The average speed, deducting for stops, was 70.9 miles an hour.

Wreck on Southern.

Albion, Ill., June 14.—In the Southern wreck at Golden Gate, Ill., yesterday noted in these dispatches Tuesday, three people were killed and 29 hurt. While going 50 miles an hour the engine struck a spread rail on a trestle 20 feet high and the engine and four coaches overturned falling to the bottom of the ravine. The engine turned completely over. The dead: J. J. Chiles, Greenway, Ark.; J. D. Johnson, freeman, Princeton, Ind.; Otto Graetz, engineer, Princeton, Ind. The train consisted of three Pullmans and four coaches. Two of the sleepers were derailed but did not go over the trestle. The third sleeper remained on the track. The most of the injured were taken to Louisville. The others were taken westward by way of Olney, Ill.

PROGRESS BEING MADE

No Hitch Occurs In the Preliminary Negotiations For Peace.

DIPLOMATS AT WHITE HOUSE

French Ambassador and Japanese Minister Confer With President Roosevelt—Czar's Reply Made Public In Russia—Japan's Terms the Theme of Discussion.

Washington, June 14.—Among members of the diplomatic corps the formal response of the Russian government to the president's appeal for a cessation of hostilities was received with keen interest. It was made the subject of a conference at the White House between the president and Minister Takahira. The details of the conference were not disclosed, but Minister Takahira intimated strongly that the negotiations were proceeding smoothly. In other diplomatic quarters it was suggested that possibly a too optimistic view of the situation generally was taken. This idea, coupled with a call of M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, at the White House, led to the rumor, extensively circulated, that something akin to a hitch in the peace proceedings actually had occurred. However, after the conference, Ambassador Jusserand, when asked the direct question whether a hitch had occurred in the peace negotiations, replied frankly that he had heard of none.

The White House is yet the medium for all communications between the two capitals. Important details remain to be agreed upon before the plenipotentiaries of the belligerents can meet to discuss the means of ending the war. There is adequate authority for the statement that there is no actual hitch in the preliminary negotiations. Progress is being made, but it may be several days or even longer before all details for the meeting can be definitely fixed. A diplomat explained the situation when he said certain optimists had succeeded in getting ahead of the actual status quo of the negotiations. "These optimists," he added, "naturally become alarmed when they find that the negotiations are not keeping pace with their predictions, and straightway they announce a hitch in the negotiations."

Russia regards her consent to appoint plenipotentiaries to discuss means of ending the war as a tentative arrangement. Although the word plenipotentiary is used in the Russian reply, it is understood that their appointment does not commit Russia to any pledge to end the war. Russia's object in appointing these fully-empowered envoys is to find out whether Russia can obtain from Japan peace terms which it is possible for Emperor Nicholas to accept.

Russia's Reply.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—Instead of publishing the text of its official reply to the message from President Roosevelt regarding the initiation of peace negotiations with Japan, the Russian government decided, with the purpose of taking the public into its confidence regarding the prospects of peace, to issue a statement summarizing the status of negotiations. This statement, which pays a graceful tribute to President Roosevelt's action, expresses in a general way Russia's willingness to negotiate, without entering into particulars, which can not be considered to be definitely determined until the receipt of the Japanese reply.

Japan's Terms.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—The peace terms of Japan continue to be matter for animated speculation. A well-informed diplomat who says he knew Japan's terms before the battle of Mukden, considered them to have been very moderate and believes that even now they will be found to be not unduly harsh. Private advices received from a Russian source at Shanghai says it is certain that Japan will demand the surrender of all ships interned in eastern waters, which may be another item offsetting indemnity.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors, but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by all druggists.

BANK CUT AND LAKES ARE JOINED

WORK GOING ON FOR TWO WEEKS UNDER ENGINEER CULLY'S DIRECTION.

Elaborate Drawings Made and Submitted to State Board Before Permission Was Granted.

For the past two weeks a force of men under the direction of Civil Engineer Fred S. Cully and Park Manager Wm. D. Harris, has been working both day and night making connection between Buckeye Lake and the small artificial lake to the north, known as Crane Lake. The work is now finished and as soon as the cement and concrete work solidified sufficiently within a day or two, the water will be let in from the large body to Crane Lake.

To the uninitiated it seemed a simple proposition to cut the bank of the main body of water, but the State Board of Public Works hesitated some time before allowing this to be done. Elaborate drawings were prepared by the engineer and submitted to Chief Engineer Perkins showing just how the work was to be done, and when the chief engineer was satisfied that the cut could be made without endangering property he gave permission for the work to proceed.

Before making the cut in the bank the water from the small lake was drained and the cutting was begun from the north side after a cofferdam was built out into the big lake to keep the water back. The gap will be bridged, but there will be sufficient room under the bridge to permit the passage of launches from the larger body of water into the smaller.

Vudor shades add another room to your house. A delightful cool, breezy room, where the whole family can practically live during the heated season in comfort. Vudor shades afford just the seclusion you desire. A shade suitable for a porch should temper the sun's heat and admit whatever breeze may be astir.
Vudor shades do both—No other shades do. Then, in addition, if the shades will screen your porch from the inquisitive gaze of passers-by, yet permit you to see the outside scene, you have perfect shades. Vudor shades will—no other shades do.

The World of White Marches On

A great demonstration of this store's leadership in attractive display as well as underpriced selling in White Wear and White Dry Goods Merchandise.

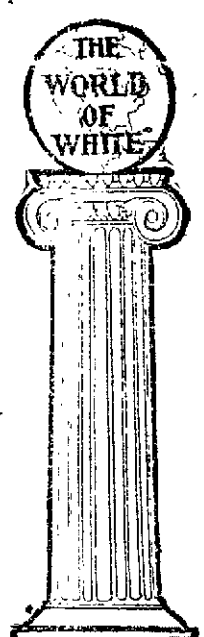

"How beautiful," say scores of our customers at the first glimpse of the World of White. "What wonderful values," they repeat when close examination is made of the heaps of white merchandise on tables and counters. We are justified in stating that many cities four times the size of ours could not duplicate either the display, the great assortment of white fabrics and white wear or the extraordinary values that are making the World of White the most talked of merchandise event this store has known in a long time.

Draft For $2000.
The First National Bank of Los Angeles, California, has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against the Licking Mining company and the Peoples bank of Newark.

The plaintiff alleges that on the 28th of November, 1904, it discounted and purchased for value before maturity, from the Baker Iron company, of Los Angeles, Cal., a draft or bill of exchange for $2000 of that date, drawn by the Baker Iron company, payable to its order on sight, on the Licking Mining company, to which a bill of lading was attached for certain machinery to be delivered upon payment of said sum of money.

The plaintiff says that it endorsed the draft for collection, and that it came into the hands of the Peoples bank of Newark, O., for collection only, to be delivered with the bill of lading to the Licking Mining company, upon payment of the draft. That the latter company, having seen and accepted the draft, paid the $2000 to the Peoples bank on December 30, 1904, and received the machinery mentioned in the bill of lading, and thereby the plaintiff became and is entitled to the money. Plaintiff says that the Licking Mining company caused to be served on the Peoples bank by the sheriff, an order of attachment and garnishee notice in action 13357, in this court by the Licking Mining company against J. B. Sloan, Fred J. Hoyt and the Baker Iron company as defendants, by reason of which the Peoples bank of Newark refused to pay over or transmit said sum of money to the plaintiff.

The said action is no more or less than a device by which the plaintiff is deprived of the money, and he asks that the Peoples bank be ordered to pay him $2000, and that the Licking Mining company be ordered to pay him damages in the sum of $100 which he has sustained. Kibler & Kibler and W. D. Fulton, attorneys for the plaintiff.

GRANVILLE COMMENCEMENT SEASON AT ITS HEIGHT.

DENISON IS NOW 75 YEARS OF AGE

DIAMOND JUBILEE OF GRANVILLE COLLEGE CELEBRATED THIS MONTH.

Anniversary Produces a Few Reflections on the Usefulness of the Old School.

Granville, O., June 14.—When the history of this commencement week shall all have been told, and the last departing Denison student shall send his farewell "Hi!" resounding from Sugar Loaf to Mt. Parnassus, the old college will go to sleep, perchance to dream of the seventy-five years of its history which have been crowned with glory and honor. While academy and university are sending out their "Centennial classes"—"centennial" to honor the birthday of the dear old town in whose bosom they have been nurtured, the schools themselves may well take pride in the passing of their own "Diamond Jubilee"—which unnumbered and unsung, yet means so much to those noble hundreds who have borne the loved name, Denison, wherever the English tongue is spoken.

Almost seventy-five years ago, a band of pilgrims, brave and true—may we not believe that some of the number traced their lineage to Mayflower ancestry?—put their hands to the plow, since as famed as that to which John Alden pledged his consecrated manhood. Those far away New England pioneers set before themselves the life work of reclaiming home and fatherland from the wilderness before them. These, their descendants, decreed in "their" half reclaimed wilderness promises of richer culture and nobler mental development than had yet been the lot of the new country to achieve; and so they set themselves to the task of plowing the furrow and sowing the seed, that coming generations might reap the glorious harvest and the alumni who are today wreathing the girder of her crimson around the very globe are reaping the harvest of the struggles, the self-sacrifice, the prophetic gleams of future blessing which guided the efforts of Darrow and Lawyer, and a score of others, whose names are inscribed on Denison's roll of fame.

Its early history was a story of hardship and anxiety, almost of battle for life. Are not our self-made heroes the greatest? When the old "gym" was recently rescued from unworthy destruction by an alumnus whose name should stand high on the roll of his alma mater, a sigh of relief came from a hundred hearts—is not every rough hewn log in the old building impregnated with a thousand sacred memories. No castle in Spain was ever built with fonder hopes and more glowing ambitions than went into every stroke of the ax, every blow of the hammer which went to make it the idealization of hopes unnumbered, crystallized into prayers unnumbered. There it stands, shattered by scores of years, an uncouth bit of wreckage to the stranger who passes it by; but there may it ever stand, the only monument of the sacrificing lives, the toil worn hands, the forgotten names, who have wrought our Denison from a dream into a most modern reality.

Commencement week throngs Granville with friends who direct their annual pilgrimage to their alma mater—and with others whose coming gives substance to shadows stealing from the far past. Denison and Shepardson have sent their graduates out to life work in India, in China, in the far islands of the sea—so to some of them the return is a long planned hope, a seldom realized possibility. So much the more, when real class reunions come, as some do every year, barriers of long separation and estrangement disappear, and old college friendships renew under the shadows of the old college walls. There are the old haunts to visit—old stories to recall—probably ending with an hour of peaceful communion under the waving shadows of the college grave yard, among the wild rose tangles which seem to make rest here so beautiful.

Out again into the sunlight, and one more look at the new Denison, which grows year by year. From the hillside looks down the pitiful remnant of Barney Hall; but richer promises linger about the new buildings which are rearing their heads so proudly in consummation of long felt wants. So each succeeding commencement time seems prouder in promise for the youth who carry the spirit and name of Denison in every laurel that life may win for them.

Eight hundred Paris butchers made an excursion to London recently and stayed five hours. They were cordially received. Such excursions are fashionable now, on account of the entente cordiale. Several hundred London sewer men recently paid a day's visit to Paris.

OLD DENISON WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

GRANVILLE TEAM HAS DEFEATED EVERY OHIO OPPONENT THIS YEAR.

Shut Out Several College Clubs and Lost Only Two Games During Whole Season.

Granville, O., June 14.—Denison won the state championship of Ohio colleges here yesterday when Boyd Chambers, by his superb pitching, defeated the Ohio Wesleyan players by the score of 3 to 1. From the opening of the game, it was a pitcher's battle with Chambers the better man. At no stage of the game did Webb allow himself to be discouraged and only in the fourth inning did the Denison warriors land heavily on his puzzling benders.

Chambers pitched shutout ball until the fifth inning when three short singles were hit over the heads of the infield. These three hits netted the Methodists their only run and saved them from a shut out. During the remaining four innings the visitors were unable to solve the puzzles which Chambers handed out. The Baptists scored in the fourth inning. It happened like this. Roundbush was first up and hit a clean two base hit. Through some puny work of Wesleyan's third baseman, he went to third on an infield bingle from Chambers willow, the popular pitcher going to first on a fielder's choice. Both Chambers and Roundbush scored when Doc Porter lined a long fly to deep center for three bases, scoring everybody ahead of him. Porter was enabled to score when Thomas dropped the third strike, while Allen was batting.

Denison played ragged at times. Roundbush at short had two errors on easy chances. His throws to first base were very bad at critical times. Doughty at first played a good game and saved his team mates from several errors by stabbing hard chances. Young Clinton Webb, Wesleyan's star twirler, pitched good ball. He strikes the fans as being awkward in the box but "gets there" just the same. He is a southpaw with a powerful arm and easily defeated most of the Ohio colleges against whom he pitched this year, in spite of the fact that he has been given poor support.

The entire crowd at Granville yesterday were impressed with the youthful appearance of the visitors. They played good ball however and pleased the crowd by their faultless fielding. Yesterday's game closed the season of college games scheduled and on Wednesday the Purities of Columbus will play at Beaver Field, this being one of the exhibition games arranged for commencement week.

MR. T. A. JONES

Given Surprise of His Life at Granville Tuesday Night—A Birthday Party.

Granville, O., June 14.—Mr. T. A. Jones one of Granville's esteemed citizens, was given the surprise of his life on Tuesday evening. The occasion was the anniversary of the birth of Mr. Jones, and his good wife decided that the event should be properly observed. To that end she confided in Rev. J. L. Wyll, an old comrade, and he invited about twenty of the old comrades of Mr. Jones to assist in celebrating the event. Tuesday evening while Mr. Jones was still at his store, a number of the Newark comrades and others met at the corner of Broadway and Pearl streets, and were taken to the home of Mr. Jones. Rev. Mr. Wyll then started in search of Mr. Jones and after finding him, notified him that he was needed at his home on a matter of business. Mr. Jones hurriedly repaired to his home, accompanied by Rev. Mr. Wyll and found the house in darkness.

When he entered the door he was immediately surrounded and ordered to throw up his hands. Tom thought the enemy had him, and immediately capitulated, and when he discovered who his captors were his surprise was complete. There were Henry Case, Moses Goodrich, Edward Carlisle and Thomas Carlisle all former members of his regiment, the 11th O. V. I., besides representatives of the Army of the Cumberland and the Potomac and the Trans-Mississippi Department, all of whom had participated in many of the hardest fought battles of the war. One of the features of the occasion was the sumptuous supper that was served, and the splendid music that was furnished by the Misses Watkins on the piano and violin, and Miss Ella Camp, who gave a fine recitation. Remarks were made by Captain L. H. Incho, Comrades Wright, Wyll and others. The affair was a great success and will long be remembered by those who were in attendance.

SENIOR CLASS

Of Denison Has Breakfast on Sugar Loaf—Class Day Exercises on Hill Wednesday.

Granville, O., June 14.—The senior class of Denison university enjoyed a breakfast on the beautiful Sugar Loaf hill early Wednesday morning. At the conclusion of the repast the seniors repaired to the college campus on the hill, where the usual class day exercises were held. The exercises were opened by invocation by Rev. Arthur Baldwin, '96, after which the class poem was read by Charles Patterson. A quartette of young women consisting of Misses Faith Pomeroy, Ruth McKibbin, Kate Chambers and Ruth Drake, then sang very creditably. The class prophecy was read by Miss Elsie Husted, and was full of humor, wit and interest. A quartette consisting of Burt Nickels, Charles Patt, Fulton VanVoorhis and James Chaffee, then sang most effectively a college song. Mr. Ralph Miller, on behalf of the departing class then presented the traditional shoe, laced with the colors of the class, orange and black, to the president of the senior class of next year, Mr. Walter Hampton. After singing "Denison, Our Denison," Dr. Hunt made a few interesting remarks, appropriately closed the exercises.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump, up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery. Recent scientific research has put it finger on the "cause" of Dandruft, Fall-Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair. Newburt's Herpicide destroys this germ and conserves and restores the hair to its natural state. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

C. T. Bricker, Special Agent.

PURITY.

Rev. L. O. Thompson filled his regular appointment at Eden Sunday morning and evening.

Children's Day will be observed at Pleasant Valley church next Sunday night.

Several of our young people attended the children's day exercises at the Hill Sunday night.

The Board of Education will meet at the township house Saturday evening, June 17, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of considering the applications of teachers for the schools in Eden township for the coming year.

Mrs. Wm. Larson and son James, of Newark, visited at Sidney Larson's last Thursday.

Jesse Hawke and sister Miss Grace, of Martinsburg, visited at their uncle James Hawke's Sunday.

Frank Taylor traded horses with Clate Harris one day last week.

FACTS ABOUT NORWAY.

Points in the History of the Kingdom Now in the News.

The Chicago News says: Norway marked another turning point in its history on Tuesday when it declared itself independent of Sweden with which it has been associated since 1814. Norway's historical period stretches no farther back than the ninth century. Behind that time are the ages of the sagas. The petty tribe kings were united under Harald Haarfager, or Fair-hair. Harald died about 933, after having established his government at Trondhjem in the north. The Danes and Norwegians were the terror of all Europe at this time through their plundering forays and invasions.

In the hundred years that followed the death of Harald Haarfager Christianity was introduced. In the year 1028 King Olaf, the Saint, was driven out by King Canute the Great of Denmark, but Olaf's son recovered possession and until 1319 Norway continued to be governed by native kings. During these centuries the Norse adventurers established permanent colonies in Iceland and Greenland and to a while the Orkneys and Shetland isles and the Hebrides were in possession of Norwegian kings whose last inroad into Scotland was repelled in 1263.

In 1319, there being no male heirs to the throne, the Norwegian National Assembly chose Magnus of Sweden to be king. His grandson, having been elected king of Denmark in 1376, became ruler of both Scandinavian kingdoms on the death of his father in 1380. The last died without male heirs and his mother, Queen Margaret of Denmark, succeeded to the throne of Denmark and Norway. Later she became mistress also of Sweden. The three kingdoms were bound together by the union of Calmar in 1397.

Thence, till 1814, Norway continued united with Denmark. The wars of Napoleon severed the union which had existed for more than 400 years. Denmark had sided with Bonaparte and after his defeat the allies compelled her to purchase peace by abandoning her sovereignty over Norway. After the treaty of Kiel in 1814, by which Denmark's claim to Norway was extinguished, Sweden and Norway became associated under one king.

Norway's coast along its outer belt of rocks measures about 1,700 miles, but its entire shore line, including the fjords and the large islands, is close to 12,000 miles in length, enough to reach half around the world. Norway is about 250 miles wide in the south and in the north a little more than 60 miles. Its area is 124,129 square miles a little more than the area of New Mexico. Its population in 1900 numbered 2,239,880, and Sweden's in the following year numbered 3,175,228.

COLORADO TOWN THAT RUNS ITSELF

People of Silverton Have Paid No City Tax for Dozen Years—Income Exceeds Expenses.

Silverton, Colo., Jan. 14.—This village of 2,000 people is popularly known throughout the country as "the town that runs itself." Its citizens have paid no city taxes for more than a dozen years, yet the town is one of the most prosperous in Colorado, and last year had an income of more than $15,000 above all running expenses.

Its entire revenues come from liquor licenses and water and light rentals, and the success of municipal ownership here is such that the citizens would not go back to the era of private public service corporations under any circumstances. Two years ago the local lighting plant was purchased from the corporation which owned it.

Last year it showed a gross income of $17,965.40, including $1,800 which the town charged itself for street lighting. Its operating expenses were $14,888.28. The town's income for water rentals during the same period was $10,009.47, and from saloon licenses $14,122. The total receipts from all sources were $49,859.49, an actual surplus over the town's running expenses of $15,570.32. Practically all of this surplus was expended in additions to the town's water system, which is valued at approximately $55,000. The lighting plant is appraised at $32,000. The latter is now furnishing four times the amount of current produced at the time of its purchase by the city two years ago, the abnormal increase being due to the exceptionally low price of current. Light rentals and water rentals are lower than in any other city in the west, the minimum charges being $1.50 per month, with meter service, subject to a discount of 25 per cent if paid when due. The discount on water rentals is 15 per cent.

Under the charter the mayor and the aldermen act as a board of managers for both the water and lighting plants. Not a breath of scandal has ever tainted their efforts in this direction, though it is recognized here that a change in the statutes which would take the management entirely out of politics would be an improvement on the present system.

FLAG DAY IS OBSERVED HERE

OLD GLORY FLOATS FROM MANY WINDOWS AND HOUSETOPS
IN NEWARK.

Flag Day First Celebrated in Newark.
Flag Association was Formed in the Year 1898.

The 128th birthday anniversary of "Old Glory" is being observed in Newark today by a very general display of flags over the city and appropriate exercises in the public schools. It is appropriate that there should be so general an observance of Flag Day in Newark. This is the first city in the land to observe Flag Day, but in late years the custom has become national.

Owing to the ardent and increasing patriotism of the American people the American Flag Association was organized at an enthusiastic mass meeting in New York City February 17, 1898. The association is composed of individual members and is also a union of flag committees of the patriotic societies of the United States. The purpose of the association is to foster public sentiment in favor of honoring the flag of our country, to preserve it from desecration and to initiate and forward all legal measures to prevent such desecration. Any patriotic citizen can become a member of the association.

In some of the states statutes have been enacted in recent years requiring the observance of Flag Day in the public schools, at which time the history of the flag is rehearsed and instruction in patriotism given to the pupils.

Flag Decorations. Among the many in Newark who observed Flag Day on Wednesday by unfurling their flags to the breeze was Mr. James M. Browne, the popular Third street grocer. Mr. Browne had several large flags in front of his place of business. He also had a unique display in the store, which consisted of several flags attached to a large electric fan, and their revolving made a very pretty effect.

Louisville, Ky., June 14.—Louisville, decorated to an unknown extent, extended a warm hospitality to a never-ending stream of arriving veterans, who have come to Kentucky to attend the fifteenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans. The accommodations arranged for the veterans are on a large scale and are believed to be complete. At several places barracks have been arranged for the accommodation of 1,000 veterans, and the old men will be fed in buildings near by. General W. E. Mickle, adjutant general and chief of staff, has completed his annual report. Referring to the condition of the organization, the report says: "It is a source of sincerest pleasure to me to be able to report that the debt that has been resting on the federation for a number of years has been paid in full. Since our reunion in Nashville last June 18 new camps have been chartered, making the total on the roster at this time 1,474."

WIFE BEATING IS CHARGE MADE

Police Called to Bud Stinger's Home to Quell Disturbance—Mrs. Mar-riott's Condition Serious.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday evening the police received a call to a Granville street home where it was reported that a man was killing his wife. As a result of the trip to that part of the city, Bud Stinger was locked up in the city prison on a charge of wife beating.

It is alleged that Stinger and his wife had some trouble which disturbed the domestic tranquility of their home and that Stinger handled his wife roughly. After receiving the call the police were taken to the Stinger home in James Mills' auto, the trip being made in a very few moments.

In police court Wednesday morning Stinger pleaded not guilty to the charge and the case was continued until Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Marriott, the woman who was the victim of her husband's wrath in East Newark Monday, is still in a serious condition as the result of the attack. Marriott is still in jail.

Bellevue, O., June 14.—A shooting affray at midnight resulted in the serious injury of Policeman F. G. Royson. As a result of previous trouble two men entered the premises of Carl Schafer and after enticing him out of the house opened fire with a revolver. None of the shots took effect. After summoning the police Schafer, with his son, secured shotguns and pursued the would-be murderers. Royson hurried to the Schafer residence and joined in the chase. As he was running through a dark alley he came upon Schafer and son, who fired two shots at close range. Royson received one charge full in the neck and chest and is in a serious condition. The police have information which may result in prominent persons being taken into custody.
